Shajar Shares

We had so many incredible things happening this week! We had our second 3-10 overnight at camp on Tuesday night! We were able to have extra swim time, and a delicious barbecue dinner made by our amazing Gregg!! We also played a great new game of Medieval Capture the Flag and sat altogether by an enormous fire where we sang songs and ate some delicious s'mores! After having an amazing time, all the campers were tired by Wednesday (I see that as a win!) but Thursday we had the messiest Yom Messy!! Everyone spent a lot of time getting down and messy playing muddy Gaga and Paint Twister and so much more!! We are so excited to welcome Na'arim to host this week's Oneg! They've worked hard on their song and dance and are excited for you to enjoy! We're all excited for more to come next week!!

Shabbat Shalom!
 Shajar :)

GROUP ARTICLES

Gan (3-5 Year olds)

The Gan group had such a fun week! We learned new songs in Shira and a new dance for Rikud. We can't wait to show off our new moves! Our favorite activity was definitely Sport with Leah! She always has the best games for us to play! We ended the week making our own lemonade and it was soooooo good! We're ready for next week's adventures!

Jazzmyn, Naomi & Hannah

Tseirim (Grade 1-2)

Holy cow 5th week for 1/2 at Camp Givah is in the books! This week they enjoyed swimming, trying four square, and starting a garden in the camp community. Also, for Yom Messy/Mayim they played in the mud and did some water games!! Can't wait to see what next week brings!

Devonne, Matthew, Sasha, and Amy

Shorashim (Grade 3-4)

This week was full of all kinds of incredible stuff that all the campers enjoyed. First was our Tuesday-Wednesday overnight which was long but also super fun. Thursday was our Yom Messy/Yom Mayim, which consisted of a cool competition that got us all messy but washed us off in the end with fun water games. Finally, the week was concluded by an exciting Oneg. Shabbat shalom Machaneh Givah!

GROUP ARTICLES

Nitzanim (Grade 5-6)

On Monday we had some luck with us with the weather holding out, allowing us to stay up at camp. Then on Tuesday we had an amazing overnight with a bonfire, s'mores, and a huge game of Medieval Capture the Flag! Then on Thursday we had a very exciting Yom Mayim day filled with water based activities. We closed off the week watching the Na'arim perform their dance and song at Oneg. Overall it's another great week in the books!

- Ben Chick & Ami Drucker

Na'arim (Grade 7-8)

This week was such a fun week for Na'arim. We had a great overnight playing capture the flag and searching in the counselor hunt. We also had a great time playing outside in the water for Yom Mayim. This week was Na'arim's Oneg and we couldn't wait to perform our song and dance.

Shabbat Shalom,
Jacob Stryker & Aaron Davis

Bonim (Grade 9-10)

This week in Bonim, we spent some time learning about the benefits of effective communication and how to get a group of people to be able to listen to and understand you. Bonim then spent time with the Gan, 1-2, and 5-6 groups. They had a blast overnight with some extra free swim and awesome games! We can't wait for the Lake George overnight next week!

SPECIALTIES

Sport

This week in sport we have had a lot of fun. There has been running while playing follow the leader and practicing throwing balls with Gan, learning rules and techniques for Four Square and Gaga with 1/2, hiking to the waterfall and four square with 3/4, and badminton with the 5/6 and Na'arim. All around we have been active at sport and with great sportsmanship. Week 5 has been great fun all around!

Leah Johnson

Wow what a great week at the waterfront. As per usual, the annual Yom Mayim was a splash (although the pool was a bit messy). We're really proud of the progress our campers have been making in lessons. They are the reason we guard.

Noah, Caitlin, Tani, Ofer, Noa and Cassie

Rikud (Dance)

This week Na'arim couldn't wait to show their dance at Friday's Oneg. They worked really hard and finished learning their Zim dance as well. All of the groups continued to work on their Zim dances and were excited show a new dance they all learned for the Oneg called Jerusalema.

Noa, Yaeli, Ellie and Noa W.

Briut (Health)

We appreciate the cooler weather but keep drinking water and applying sunscreen. We had a lot of fun staying cool with water activities at Yom Mayim.

SPECIALTIES

Shira (Song)

Week 5 was great!! Everyone was singing beautifully on the bus, Eitz Hada'at, Oneg, and at Shira with lots of Ruach! Na'arim are excited and ready for their Oneg with the song "Katan Aleynu" (We Got This). The song features 40 Israeli singers and was written and recorded in response to the 2019-2021 COVID-19 pandemic. Na'arim sang it beautifully, and I'm so proud of them!

Shabbat Shalom, Rivi Bahir

Limud (Studies)

This week in Limud we continued our camp composting initiative, with our younger groups doing an especially great job! Some of the groups spent some time reviewing some of the prayers we say at tefillot! The Na'arim campers also spent the week preparing for their Oneg Shabbat which they did a fantastic job with!

-Shore Goldberg

Omanut (Art)

We had so much fun in omanut this week! We got to make customized spoon dolls. We also made lots of different paper bag puppets. Some of us also got to make collages.

- Sarah Davis

Teva (Nature)

We had fun in Teva this week. We played lots of outdoor games. Some of us got to go on nature walks and learn all about the animals that live on the property like snakes, toads and salamanders.
